

The Chrome Dinner

Best Service Provider

Hubert was nominated for his extensive knowledge and experience within the chrome logistics and shipping industry, together with his ability to provide clients with practical, reliable solutions.

A consistent theme in the nominations is his professionalism and dependability. He is regarded as someone clients can rely on when dealing with complicated logistics requirements and someone who understands both the operational requirements and the pressures involved in moving chrome.

The reasons people nominated Hubert include:

- * His extensive experience and industry knowledge.
- * Providing excellent and consistent service to customers.
- * His strong understanding of shipping, forwarding and chrome logistics.
- * Being reliable and dependable, particularly when challenges arise.
- * His willingness to assist customers and find solutions, rather than simply identifying a problem.
- * Providing a professional and efficient service.
- * His ability to build and maintain strong relationships with clients.
- * Being part of a team that is considered responsive, approachable and easy to work with.
- * His contribution to Seamaster's ability to provide innovative and tailored logistics solutions.
- * A willingness to go beyond what is normally expected to get the job done.
- * His longstanding contribution and commitment to the chrome logistics industry.
